SKI CONSTRUCTION

TRACER SERIES

The TRACER SERIES tells the ski world we like to do things differently here at Armada. For 18-19 we're still focused on a stable and predictable ski in versatile conditions, but added subtle rocker and taper regions to keep the Tracer series nimble and playful when you want to have a little fun. From lightweight freeride, to high altitude slaying, to ultra-light touring, this 4-piece series is built for skiers that paint outside the lines on the uphill, sidehill, and big mountain downhill.

TRACER 118 CHX

RA0000030+

For those that live life up high, the Armada Tracer 118 CHX is our ultimate big mountain performer. Elf shoe technology in the nose and a slight tail rocker keep things surfy, but this ski is designed with big boy terrain in mind, integrating our Xrystal Mesh to absorb and power through any snow condition. Titanal reinforcement underfoot and sidewall construction keep this light-weight ski damp and powerful for when you need it most.

TRACER 108

RA0000026+

The perfect combination of weight reduction and stability, the Armada Tracer 108 is a lightweight ski that likes to hang outside the ropes. This ski ups the performance ante with dampening Xrystal Mesh, titanal reinforcement underfoot and sidewall construction to create just the right feel whether used by freeriding or touring enthusiasts.

VICTA SERIES

Finally, a women's ski that stands up to the big boys. Directional all-mountain machines that cover four different waist widths, the VICTA SERIES is built with performance in mind, ranging from metal-charged all-mountain tools to lively piste crusaders. Pony up, this is one ride you don't want to miss.

VICTA 97Ti

RA0000016+

Simply put, the Armada Victa 97 Ti is the answer to every women's ski produced over the last decade. Gone are the days of noodley turns thanks to a Ti laminate plate that provides the performance you crave at the speed you need. Lay 'em over and lay it down on our powerful, yet maneuverable, 97 Ti.

VICTA 87Ti

RA0000012+

Power and finesse is the name of the game for the Armada Victa 87 Ti, the slimmer half of the metal integrated Victa Ti duo. At 87mm underfoot, the Victa Ti finds its float, but feels right at home on the hardpack, utilizing its Ti laminate plate to keep the chatter down and the speed up in just about any condition.

VICTA 83

The background is a complex, abstract composition. The upper portion features dark, swirling, organic textures in shades of black and dark grey, with bright magenta and pink highlights that suggest a microscopic or biological structure. The lower portion is dominated by large, angular, crystalline shapes in vibrant cyan, blue, and magenta, with some areas showing a fiery orange-red glow. The overall effect is one of dynamic energy and intricate detail.
